

A company needs a strong foundation. A chair needs stable legs, a firm seat, and a strong backrest. A place to sit, dream, and fly. Rooted in Switzerland and with our feet firmly on the ground, we remain true to ourselves and yet take changing market conditions into account. Our distinguishing features are our professionalism and the freshness of a new airline: clear and simple, reliable and safe, dynamic and flexible, friendly and attentive, familiar and well-positioned.

For our headquarters in Glattbrugg, Zurich, we are looking for a

Chief Pilot

to start as soon as possible.

Your duties

- Together with the Head of Flight Operations you are responsible for day to day business within flight operations and ensure that all operational processes are in accordance with related regulations.
- You supervise the company's fleet operations
- You supervise and check the fleet standards
- You cooperate closely with other department within the company
- You recommend cockpit staff requirements and participate actively in the staff recruitment.
- You supervise the cockpit crew
- You lead projects

Your profile:

- Solid educational background in the fields of Management and Leadership
- Practical experience and expertise in the application of aviation safety standards and safe operating practices.
- Profound knowledge of
 - Applicable EU safety regulations and all associated requirements and processes.
 - All relevant parts of the Operation Manuals and the associated instructions, requirements and processes.
 - EU air traffic regulations and national legislations.
- Excellent knowledge of Air OPS Management System.
- Advanced understanding of Safety Management Systems (SMS), preferably in the airline industry.
- Exhibit excellent leadership skills and expertise of flight operations.
- 2 years of working experience in airline management is an advantage.
- CMD A320 FAM with line experience and proven competence.
- Overall entrepreneurial thinking and acting.
- High sense of responsibility and trustworthiness.
- Very articulate written and spoken communication skills in D/E.

Please send your application documents (covering letter, CV, copies of certificates, salary expectations, and possible start date) to bewerbung@chair.ch by December 15th, 2019.